Colette is an Associate in the Property Law Team at Harwood Andrews.

Colette obtained her Bachelor of Laws (Honours) at the University of Hertfordshire, United Kingdom and has studied at Deakin University and at the College of Law (Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice). She is admitted to legal practice in the Supreme Court of Victoria and High Court of Australia.

Prior to commencing at Harwood Andrews, Colette spent a number of years working as a commercial solicitor where she practiced in property, business and litigation. She is committed to her clients by listening to particular issues and challenges and working together to achieve the best outcome for her clients. She has acted for a wide range of clients, including developers, high net-worth companies/individuals, property investors and small businesses.

Colette continues to draw on her experiences and understands the importance of providing commercial, pragmatic and timely advice to her clients with her problem solving and outcome driven approach.
